When The Deliverer Needs Deliverance - Dr. D.

K. Olukoya 2014-06-27

Can be simply described as one of the most powerful books ever written on the subject of the Christian ministry. This book is written by a minister who is well versed in the perils of the Christian ministry, the pit-falls to avoid as well as the vital areas where the gospel minister needs to be ministered to. This is indeed a ground breaking book from the pen of an author who has been given uncommon insights into the deep pathos as well as the heavy burdens which the Almighty has for all cadres of Christian leadership including General Overseers, General Superintendents, Senior Pastors, Pastors, Evangelists, Christian workers and deliverance ministers. It is a manual for ministerial deliverance. This book will change your life and your ministry.

Milk Fever - Ross, Megan 2018-06-05

In an extraordinary debut, Megan Ross writes the uneasy truths about unexpected motherhood and all its emotional detritus. In deftly and experimentally navigating the angst, joy and self-reckoning that comes with the choices and misadventures of young womanhood, this is a collection that brings together the evocative with the provocative, and the feminist with the personal, in a bold and startling poetic style. Hallucinatory, image-wet, and navigating the eternal tides of spirit and body, Milk Fever is a chimeric dreamscape in which a woman reconfigures, remembers and rebirths herself. The BreakBeat Poets Vol. 3 - Fatimah Asghar 2019-04-16

We live in an Islamophobic world, where Muslim people are constantly under attack, and must prove their innocence when they've not even committed a crime. We also live in a world of rigid gender roles and gender violence, where women, gender non-conforming and trans people are victims of violence, and have their gender expressions, freedoms, and desires policed. There's pressure from both Muslims and non-Muslims to fit into severe stereotypes of Muslim identity and the ways in which it is acceptable to be Muslim. The BreakBeat Poets Vol. 3: Halal If You Hear Me is a celebration of intersectional identity that dispels the notion that there is one correct way to be a Muslim, particularly for women, gender non-conforming, and trans people. In holding space for multiple intersecting identities, the anthology celebrates and protects those identities.

Everything Is A Deathly Flower - Mohale, Maneo
2019-08-23

dear reader, are you still there? take a second, now. breathe // with me. In one of the most anticipated debut collections of recent years, Maneo Mohale reckons boldly with the experience of – and the reconstruction of a life after – a sexual assault. Mohale’s unapologetic and disarming voice carries through a budding and blooming garden of poetics, rooted in a contemporary southern African tradition, but springing forth in queer and radical new directions. Indeed, this is a work encompassing the full, often contradictory, and seldom complete process of healing: where relations must be chosen as well as made; where time becomes non-linear and language insufficient; where nothing is what it seems, yet everything is what it is.
